Group Aliyah –

An engine for growth and strengthening the south and north of Israel

An innovative move to encourage Aliyah, strengthen the periphery, and build prosperous communities

- The "Iron Swords" War created an immediate need and critical national task to restore and strengthen the Negev and Galilee regions
- Aliyah contributes to strengthening the country's demographic, security and economic stability
- Group Aliyah is a model forming organized groups of Olim who come on Aliyah together to a local authority
- Families will live near each other and receive a tailored basket of services together

Rationale and Basic Principles

Group Aliyah model supports demographic, economic and community growth and strengthens Israeli-World Jewish connections

- Growth: Strengthening the affected areas and creating demographic and national stability
- Strengthening communities: Local cohesion and connection with long-time residents
- Mutual support: Group Aliyah enables faster integration
- Economic growth engines: Strengthening the local economy and developing the periphery
- Solidarity: Strengthening their feeling of belonging to Israeli society

The Model – How does it Work?

A structured process with a supportive framework for each Oleh

The success of group Aliyah is based on a unique model that provides Olim with security, stability and the opportunity to quickly integrate into Israeli society

Early preparation in the Diaspora

Formation of organized groups, close support and targeted marketing

Moving Together to Israel

Shared housing in an adapted environment and mutual support

Employment and social absorption

Professional training, integration into the labor market and social volunteering

Strengthening connection with the local community

Connecting with veteran residents and community activities

Where does this happen? Designated Communities

Strengthening the North and the South – Building Israel’s Future

Through this program, hundreds of Olim will settle in strategic localities with full support, employment solutions and opportunities of growth
